

January 16, 2020

The Bureau of Economic Analysis and the Census Bureau principal economic indicator press lockups are hosted at the Department of Labor's secure facility. The releases will continue as scheduled under DOL's new lockup requirements. BEA and Census Bureau leadership are reviewing the announced changes and are committed to the secure, timely, and equitable release of these important data.