The goods deficit increased $2.8 billion in February to $88.0 billion. The services surplus decreased $0.5 billion in February to $16.9 billion.

Monthly Goods and Services Trade Deficit
January 2012–February 2021

Exports
Exports of goods and services decreased $5.0 billion, or 2.6 percent, in February to $187.3 billion. Exports of goods decreased $4.8 billion and exports of services decreased $0.2 billion.

- The decrease in exports of goods reflected decreases in capital goods ($2.5 billion), in consumer goods ($0.9 billion), in foods, feeds, and beverages ($0.7 billion), and in automotive vehicles, parts, and engines ($0.7 billion).
- The decrease in exports of services reflected a decrease in travel ($0.1 billion).

Imports
Imports of goods and services decreased $1.7 billion, or 0.7 percent, in February to $258.3 billion. Imports of goods decreased $2.0 billion and imports of services increased $0.3 billion.

- The decrease in imports of goods reflected decreases in automotive vehicles, parts, and engines ($3.4 billion) and in consumer goods ($2.7 billion). An increase in industrial supplies and materials ($3.5 billion) partly offset the decreases.
- The increase in imports of services reflected increases in transport ($0.2 billion) and in insurance services ($0.1 billion).

The global COVID-19 pandemic and the economic recovery continued to impact international trade. The full economic effects of the pandemic cannot be quantified in the statistics because the impacts are generally embedded in source data and cannot be separately identified. For more detailed information on trade by type of good or service and with major trading partners, see U.S. International Trade in Goods and Services, February 2021.
