Part III – Ocean Freight Revenues and Foreign Expenses of U.S. Carriers

Specific Instructions for Part III

Column (a) — Revenues on cargo outbound from U.S. ports to foreign destinations. Report gross freight revenue and charter revenue (whether collect or prepaid) earned from shippers of merchandise for carrying U.S. exports to foreign countries, net of any special discounts allowed shippers. Include earnings on outbound in-transit cargoes. Specify country of destination of cargo. Exclude earnings on cargoes carried for the U.S. Department of Defense (customarily under military bill of lading or space charter).

If the respondent is a subsidiary, a branch, or another affiliate of the shipper, revenues should be reported even if the amounts are only credited to an intercompany account. Whenever selling and shipping operations are combined in one company and the sales price includes delivery at the port of destination, only the recorded or estimated gross freight or charter revenue component of the value of the cargo should be entered in this column.

Column (b) — Outbound cargo shipping weight. Report outbound cargo shipping weight, in thousands of long tons (1 long ton = 2,240 pounds), on which the revenues reported in (a) were earned.

Column (c) — Revenue on cross-trade cargoes. Report gross freight and charter revenue earned in cross-trade, i.e., for carrying cargoes from one foreign port to another. Enter cross-trade revenue under country of destination of the cargo. Exclude cargoes carried for the U.S. Department of Defense. Earnings on cargo inbound for in-transit shipment through the United States or for transshipment, should be included here. If earnings on such shipments cannot be separated from other earnings on inbound cargo they may be reported in column (h) and so noted.

Column (d) — Charter hire and space leasing payments to foreign residents. Report charter hire and space leasing payments to foreign residents (specify foreign residents by country) for outbound and/or cross-trade voyages. Exclude payments made for inbound voyages. Report charter hire payments for vessels leased with crew from foreign residents. Exclude payments for vessels leased without crew (operated by you). Report space leasing payments for space leased or vessels operated by foreign residents. Include payments to foreign subsideries or lifetimes of U.S. companies whether the payments are made abroad or line United States. Exclude payments to U.S. residents including those holding vessels directly under foreign registry. If charter bite is reported net of expenses paid by you for the owner's account, such expenses, innourred a broad, should be reported in column (g). Provides with foreigners is to all be reported in this column.

Column (e) — Charter hire and space leasing revenue from to eight residents.
