

Learn About Your State's Economy With GDP Quiz

Circle the correct answers:

1. What can GDP data be used to measure?
 - A. The size of a state's economy
 - B. The growth of a state's economy
 - C. The income of a state's workers
 - D. Both A and B

2. Which measure would you use to find the state with the largest economy?
 - A. A map of the United States
 - B. Nominal GDP levels
 - C. Per capita GDP
 - D. Real GDP growth rates

3. Which measure would you use to take inflation into account when comparing state economies?
 - A. Per capita GDP
 - B. Nominal GDP levels
 - C. Real GDP growth rate
 - D. None of the above

4. State X had the highest GDP growth rate among U.S. states. This tells you that State X was:
 - A. The largest state in square miles
 - B. The state with the largest economy
 - C. The state with the fastest growing economy
 - D. All of the above

5. The biggest state economies always grow at the fastest rate. True or False.