Instructions

- 13 A. Report the amount that represents the U.S. Reporter's equity, based on its directly held equity interest in the foreign affiliate's net income (loss) for the quarter, before provision for common or preferred dividends and before any reduction for foreign withholding taxes on dividends, but after provision for other foreign income taxes.
 - If the U.S. Reporter holds both a direct and indirect equity interest, only the share representing the direct equity interest should be given in this item.
 - Do not eliminate intercompany transactions.
 - Include, on an equity basis, the foreign affiliate's share in net income of unconsolidated foreign business enterprises owned by it.
 - Include remeasurement of the foreign affiliate's foreign-currency-denominated assets and liabilities due to changes in foreign exchange rates during the reporting period and other gains and losses included in 13 B.1.
 - B. For certain gains (losses) included in net income, see Definitions on page 9.
 - For certain gains (losses) for dealers in financial instruments and finance, insurance, and real estate companies, see Special Instructions on page 11.
 - Include in 13 B.2, unrealized holding gains (losses) due to changes in the valuation of available-for-sale securities per FASB ASC 320 (FAS 115), and any other comprehensive income items required to be displayed separately from retained earnings as per FASB ASC 220 (FAS 130).
 - C. Report U.S. Reporter's share of currency translation adjustments resulting from the translation of the foreign affiliate's financial statements from the affiliate's functional currency into U.S. dollars. Such adjustments should be computed in accordance with FASB ASC 830 (FAS 52) or other currently applicable standards of the Financial Accounting Standards Board.
 - D. Report dividends as of the date they were declared or paid, GROSS of any foreign taxes withheld. Any subsequent settlement of dividends declared but not paid SHOULD NOT be reported a second time, but should be reflected only as a reduction in Part II 17 A.

Report all items on a quarterly basis, NOT on a cumulative or year-to-date basis.

Part II – Balances and Interest Between the U.S. Reporter and Foreign Affiliate (Continued)

Affiliate ID

Current Quarter

Balances

17 What were the receivable and payable balances between the U.S. Reporter and the foreign affiliate?

- Base data on the books of the U.S. Reporter.
- Include current and long-term items, indebtedness resulting from a capital lease, and the net book value of equipment under a long-term operating lease.
 - If leases between the U.S. Reporter and the foreign affiliate are capitalized, then include the outstanding capitalized value as an intercompany balance. Lease payments should be disaggregated into the amount that is

 (i) a reduction in the intercompany balance, to be reported in items A or B, and (ii) interest to be reported in
 - If leases between the U.S. Reporter and the foreign affiliate are operating leases for more than one year that have not been capitalized, include the net book value. Lease payments should be disaggregated into the amounts that represent (i) the return of capital, consisting of the depreciation component for long-term operating leases, which should be reflected as a reduction in items A or B, and (ii) rent or net rent, which is not covered by this survey.
- The current quarter's opening balance should be equal to the prior quarter's closing balance; therefore, if it is necessary to translate the balance into U.S. dollars, use the same exchange rate to translate the opening balance for the current quarter as was used to translate the closing balance of the prior quarter.
- Derivatives contracts Exclude the value of outstanding financial derivative contracts or any payments or receipts resulting from the settlement of these contracts. For example, the settlements of interest rate derivatives should NOT be reported as interest or as another type of transaction on this form. Derivatives contracts are covered by the Treasury International Capital (TIC) Form D, Report of Holdings of, and Transactions in, Financial Derivatives Contracts.

Survey Information

Purpose – Reports on this form are required in order to provide reliable and up-to-date information on U.S. direct investment abroad for inclusion in the U.S. international transactions and the national income and product accounts.

Authority – This survey is being conducted under the International Investment and Trade in Services Survey Act (P.L. 94-472, 90 Stat. 2059, 22 U.S.C. 3101-3108 as amended) – hereinafter "the Act", and the filing of reports is mandatory under Section 5(b) (2) of the Act (22 U.S.C. 3104). All persons contacted by BEA in writing must respond pursuant to section 801.3 of 15 C.F.R. pt. 801 and the survey instructions.

Penalties – Whoever fails to report may be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $2,500, and not more than $25,000, and to injunctive relief commanding such person to comply, or both. Whoever willfully fails to report shall be fined not more than $10,000 and, if an individual, may be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. Any officer, director, employee, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violation, upon conviction, may be punished by a like fine, imprisonment, or both. (22 U.S.C. 3105.) Civil penalties are subject to inflationary adjustments. Those adjustments are found in 15 CFR 6.4.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Respondent Burden – Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to: Director, Bureau of Economic Analysis (BE-1), U.S. Department of Commerce, Washington, DC 20230; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project 0608-0004, Washington, DC 20503.

Confidentiality – The Act provides that your report is CONFIDENTIAL and may be used only for analytical or statistical purposes. Without your prior written permission, the information filed in your report CANNOT be presented in a manner that allows it to be individually identified. Your report CANNOT be used for purposes of taxation, investigation, or regulation. Copies retained in your files are immune from legal process.

Accounting methods and records – Follow generally accepted U.S. accounting principles unless otherwise specified in the instructions. Corporations should generally use the same methods and records used to generate reports to stockholders, except where otherwise instructed. Generate reports for unincorporated persons on an equivalent basis. Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topics are referred to as "FASB ASC" in the instructions.

Retention of copies - Retain a copy of filed reports for 3 years beyond the report's original due date.

Retroactive reports – Quarterly reports for a year may be required retroactively when it is determined that the exemption level has been exceeded. If a foreign affiliate's total assets, sales, or net income (loss) exceed the exemption level in a given year, it is deemed that the exemption level will also be exceeded in the following year. A U.S. Reporter claiming exemption from filling a given report must complete the Certification of Exemption, giving the levels of total assets, sales, and net income (loss).

Definitions

Affiliate means a business enterprise located in one country which is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a person of another country to the extent of 10 percent or more of its voting securities for an incorporated business or an equivalent interest for an unincorporated business enterprise, including a branch.

Branch means the operations or activities conducted by a person in a different location in its own name rather than through an incorporated entity.

Business enterprise means any organization, association, branch, or venture which exists for profit making purposes or to otherwise secure economic advantage, and any ownership of any real estate.

Certain gains (losses) - Certain gains (losses) after provision for foreign income taxes.

- a. Sale or disposition of financial assets including investment securities; FASB ASC 320 (FAS 115 Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities) holding gains (losses) on securities classified as trading securities; FASB ASC 320 impairment losses; and gains (losses) derived from derivative instruments. Dealers in financial instruments (including securities, currencies, derivatives, and other financial instruments) and finance and insurance companies, see Special Instructions on page 11:
- b. Sales or dispositions of land, other property, plant and equipment, or other assets, and FASB ASC 360 (FAS 144 Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets) impairment losses. Exclude gains or losses from the sale of inventory assets in the ordinary course of trade or business. Real estate companies, see Special Instructions on page 11;
- c. Goodwill impairment as defined by FASB ASC 350 (FAS 142 Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets);
- d. Restructuring. Include restructuring costs that reflect write-downs or write-offs of assets or liabilities. Exclude actual payments and charges to establish reserves for future expected payments, such as for severance pay, and fees to accountants, lawyers, consultants, or other contractors;
- e. Disposals of discontinued operations. Exclude income from the operations of a discontinued segment;
- Remeasurement of foreign affiliate's foreign-currency-denominated assets and liabilities due to changes in foreign exchange rates during the reporting period;

- g. The cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle;
- h. Extraordinary, unusual, or infrequently occurring items that are material. Include losses from accidental damage or disasters after estimated insurance reimbursement. Include other material items, including write-ups, write-downs, and write-offs of tangible and intangible assets; gains (losses) from the sale or other disposition of capital assets; and gains (losses) from the sale or other disposition of financial assets, including securities, to the extent not included above. Exclude legal judgments.
- The cumulative effect of a change in the estimate of stock compensation forfeitures under FASB ASC 718 (FAS 123(R) – Share-Based Payments).

Direct investment means the ownership or control, directly or indirectly by one person of 10 percent or more of the voting securities of an incorporated foreign business enterprise or an equivalent interest in an unincorporated foreign business enterprise, including a branch.

Foreign, when used in a geographic sense, means that which is situated outside the United States or which belongs to or is characteristic of a country other than the United States.

Foreign affiliate means an affiliate located outside the United States in which a U.S. person has direct investment.

Foreign affiliate parent means a U.S. Reporter's foreign affiliate that has an equity interest in another foreign affiliate of the U.S. Reporter.

Foreign person means any person resident outside the United States or subject to the jurisdiction of a country other than the United States.

Lease is an arrangement conveying the right to use property, plant, or equipment (i.e., land and/or depreciable assets), usually for a stated period of time.

- a. Capital lease A long-term lease under which transfer of ownership is recognized at the inception of the lease. These may be shown as lease contracts or accounts receivable on the lessor's books. The asset would not be considered to be owned by the lessor.
- b. Operating lease Generally a lease with a term which is less than the useful life of the asset and in which a transfer of ownership is not contemplated.

Person (as the term is used in the broad legal sense) means any individual, branch, partnership, associated group, association, estate, trust, corporation, or other organization (whether or not organized under the laws of any state), and any government (including a foreign government, the United States Government, a state or local government, and any agency corporation, financial institution, or other entity or instrumentality thereof, including a government sponsored agency).

Rules for consolidation – The following rules should be used in determining which foreign business enterprises may be consolidated on one foreign affiliate form.

Note: Foreign business enterprises that have an equity investment in an unconsolidated business enterprise should report that investment using the equity method of accounting.

United States, when used in a geographic sense, means the several States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and all territories and possessions of the United States.

U.S. person means any person resident in the United States or subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

U.S. Reporter means the U.S. person that has direct investment in a foreign business enterprise, including a branch. If the U.S. person is an incorporated business enterprise, the U.S. Reporter is the fully consolidated U.S. domestic enterprise, which is defined as: (1) the U.S. corporation whose voting securities are not owned more than 50 percent by another U.S. corporation, and (2) proceeding down each ownership chain from that U.S. corporation, any U.S. corporation whose voting securities are pondents. more than 50 percent owned by the U.S. corporation above it. This consolidation excludes foreign branches and all other foreign affiliates.

Special Instructions for reporting unincorporated foreign affiliates of U.S. Reporters

U.S. Reporters that cannot distinguish between equity and debt investment in their unincorporated foreign affiliates: if your accounting records do not distinguish between intercompany debt (17 A and 17 B) and equity 26, then:

- 1. Compute the net change in the home office account. (This equals: End-of-quarter home office account minus beginning-of-quarter home office account.)
- 2. Subtract net income (loss) 13 A, certain realized and unrealized gains (losses) taken directly to other comprehensive income or owner's equity 13 B2, and the quarterly translation adjustment 13 C.
- 3. If the amount computed in 2. is positive, show it as an increase in equity 19 B. If the amount computed in 2. is negative, show it as a remittance of earnings (13 D and 13 F) to the extent that there is quarterly net income; show the residual, if any, as a decrease in equity 20 B. 17 A and 17 B should be blank.

Special Instructions for dealers in financial instruments and finance and insurance:

Dealers in financial instruments (including securities, currencies, derivatives, and other financial instruments) and finance and insurance companies:

- Include in 13 B1 (1) impairment losses as defined by FASB ASC 320 (FAS 115), (2) realized gains or losses on trading or dealing, and (3) unrealized gains or losses due to changes in the valuation of financial instruments that flow through the income statement, and goodwill impairment as defined by FASB ASC 350 (FAS 142).
- Include unrealized gains or losses due to changes in the valuation of financial instruments that are taken directly to other comprehensive income in 13 B2. Include income from explicit fees and commissions in 13 A.

Special Instructions for real estate companies:

Real estate companies:

Report gains or losses from the sale, disposition, or revaluation of land, other property, plant and equipment, or other assets as follows:

Realized gains and losses

- Include gains or losses from sale of real estate in the ordinary course of trade or business in net income, 13 A.
- Do NOT include these gains and losses in 13 B1 or in 13 B2.

Impairment of long-lived assets

 Include impairment losses, as defined by FASB ASC 360 (FAS 144), and recognized during the period, in net income, 13 A and in 13 B1.

Unrealized gains

- Include gains recognized due to the revaluation of real estate assets in 13 B1.
- Include goodwill impairment as defined by FASB ASC 350 (FAS 142).
